Welcome watercolor painters!

I’m looking forward to an exciting week with you as we explore versatile ways of working with the gorgeous medium of transparent and opaque watercolor.

All of the painting materials needed for this workshop are supplied, paint, paper and brushes, so just bring a small sketchpad and pencil to work out some ideas and compositions.

See you this summer!

Kathryn Myers
Professor of Art
University of Connecticut